9. Maintenance and Repair.

(a) Except for any alterations that Tenant is permitted to make hereunder, Tenant shall at all times, including without limitation, any Requisition period, put, keep and maintain the Leased Premises, including, without limitation, the roof, landscaping, walls, footings, foundations, HVAC, mechanical and electrical systems in or serving the Leased Premises and structural and nonstructural components and systems of the Leased Premises, and the Adjoining Property, in good repair and appearance, and shall promptly make all repairs and replacements (substantially equivalent in quality and workmanship to the original work) of every kind and nature, whether foreseen or unforeseen, which may be required to be made upon or in connection with any of the Leased Premises in order to keep and maintain the Leased Premises in as good repair and appearance as they were originally, except for ordinary wear and tear. Tenant shall do or cause others to do all shoring of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property or of foundations and walls of the Improvements and every other act necessary or appropriate for preservation and safety thereof, by reason of or in connection with any excavation or other building operation upon any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property, whether or not Landlord shall, by reason of any Legal Requirements or Insurance Requirements, be required to take such action or be liable for failure to do so. Landlord shall not be required to make any repair, replacement, maintenance or other work whatsoever, whether foreseen or unforeseen, or to maintain any of the Leased Premises or Adjoining Property in any way, and Tenant hereby expressly waives the right to make repairs, replacements or to perform maintenance or other work at the expense of the Landlord, which right may be provided for in any law now or hereafter in

(b) If Tenant shall be in default under any of the provisions of this Paragraph 9, Landlord may, after thirty (30) days notice to Tenant and failure of Tenant to commence to cure during said period or to diligently prosecute such cure to completion once begun, but immediately upon notice in the event of an emergency, do whatever is necessary to cure such default as may be reasonable under the circumstances for the account of and at the expense of Tenant. In the event of an emergency, before Landlord may avail itself of its rights under this Paragraph 9(b), Landlord shall send notice to Tenant of the situation by phone or other available communication. All actual and reasonable costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) so incurred by Landlord, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate from the date of payment or incurring the expense, shall constitute Additional Rent payable by Tenant under this Lease and shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord on demand.

(c) Tenant shall from time to time replace with other operational equipment or parts any of the mechanical systems or other equipment included in the Improvements which shall have become worn out, obsolete or unusable for the purpose for which it is intended, been taken by a Condemnation, or been lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed. Tenant shall repair at its sole cost and expense all damage to the Leased Premises caused by the removal of equipment or other personal property of Tenant.

10. Liens. Tenant shall not, directly or indirectly, create or permit to be created or to remain, and shall promptly discharge, any lien on any of the Leased Premises, on the Basic Rent, Additional Rent or on any other sums payable by Tenant under this Lease, other than the Mortgage (and any assignment of leases or rents collateral thereto), the Permitted Encumbrances and any mortgage, lien, encumbrance or other charge created by or resulting from any act or omission by Landlord or those claiming by, through or under Landlord (except Tenant).
